

It is surmised that Nakhon Sawan was built in the Sukhothai period. According to the stone inscription "Muang Phra Bang the name of the important Buddha image was "Phra Bang" in the reign of King Rama I. This town a fortified town on the mountain facing the east was formerly located on the west side of the Chao Phraya River. It was named, according to the site, "Muang Chon Ta Wan."

Sawan Park, the big public park in the heart of Nakhon Sawan, covers an area of 314 rai. Inside is the big swamp called "Nong Somboon" It is a place for the recreation of the residents.

Wat Chom Khiri Nak Phrot is situated on Buwat Nak mountain just before Dechatiwong Bridge. It is said that the Burmese, after defeating Ayutthaya for the second time, built the wat to show that they also believed in Buddhism. Points of interest include a model footprint of the Buddha.

San Chao Por Taepharak-San Chao Mae Taptim, the most sacred pantheon, which is highly revered and the local point of Nakhon Sawan residents and their neighbors, is located at the Pak Nam Pho community on the bank of the Chao Phraya River.

Wat Kriang Krai Klang an old monastery 22 kms. from the township, on the bank of the Nan river at Tambon Kriang Krai, houses the bronze image of Buddha, the mural paintings, chapels, old pagodas and the Buddha footprint mondop. In the compound there are a lot of monkeys and also a crocodile farm in front of the wat.

Wat Woranat Banphot (Khao Khop), an old monastery in Nakhon Sawan, is situated at the foot and on the top of Khop mountain. In the compound are many attractions including model footprint of the Buddha, and the pagodas containing the relic of the Buddha, built in the Sukhothai period.

Nakhon Sawan Cultural Centre situated in Rajabhat Institute Nakhon Sawan is a 2 storey applied Thai architectural building and a historical and cultural information center of the province; there exhibitions exhibiting the development of cultural and various archeological sites

Khao Nor-Khao Kaeo These mountains are 63 kms. from Amphoe Banphotphisai situated beside Paholyothin highway (Nakhon Sawan-Khamphaengphet). Khao Nor is a limestone mountain. At the foot of the mountain there is a wat and the stairs leading to peak and there is also a big reclining Buddha image at the mouth of the cave. King Rama V once stayed at this wat while on the way to the north. A lot of monkeys live at the foot of the

Mae Wong National Park there are many points of interest including Khaeng Pha Nang Khoi, a 4 stage rapids of Khlong Khlung creek; hot springs emerging from the natural underground.

Mae Leewa Waterfall is a 9 stage, 200 meters high waterfall which has water flowing through almost all year round. There is also Maesa waterfall

Tung Hin Tern, 70 kms. from the township, located at Moo 5 Tambon Pang Sawan Sub-Amphoe Mae Wong, is the meadow at the foot of the mountain where big rocks are erected in multi-tiered groups in different places and different formed, scattered along the compound in precarious balance.

Local Foods and Goods Some local specialties are Moji dessert, spotted featherback ball, stirred star gooseberry with sugar, dried salted fish, preserved fruit

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Bueng Boraphet, the largest lake in Thailand, occupies an area of 140,000 rai of Amphoe Muang, Amphoe Tha Tako and Amphoe Chumsaeng. There are rare animal species, include white-eyed river martin, Siamese tiger fish and during November to March a lot of teals migrate to live here.

The Source of Maenam Chao Phraya is a junction of the Ping river and the Nan river at Tambon Pak Nam Pho. The waters of the Ping flow reddish while those of the Nan flow greenish, as visible from the high ground, panoramic view, and when met become the source of Chao Phraya flowing through various provinces in the central region.

MAP OF NAKHON SAWAN

NAKHON SAWAN

TOURISM AUTHORITY OF THAILAND (TAT)
CENTRAL REGION OFFICE : REGION 7

Rop Wat Phra that Road,
Amphoe Muang, Lop Buri 15000
Tel. (036) 422-768-9 Fax. (036) 424-089

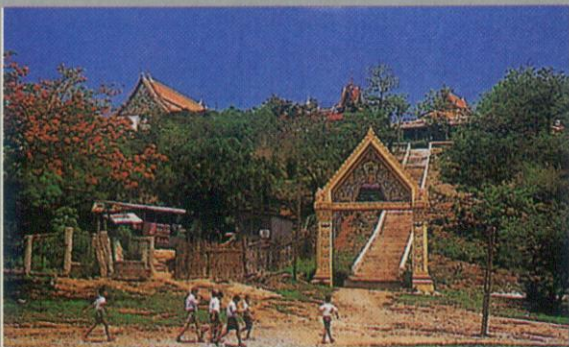

It is surmised that Nakhon Sawan was built in the Sukhothai period. According to the stone inscription "Muang Phra Bang the name of the important Buddha image was "Phra Bang" in the reign of King Rama I. This town a fortified town on the mountain facing the east was formerly located on the west side of the Chao Phraya River. It was named, according to the site, "Muang Chon Ta Wan."

Sawan Park, the big public park in the heart of Nakhon Sawan, covers an area of 314 rai. Inside is the big swamp called "Nong Somboon" It is a place for the recreation of the residents.

Wat Chom Khiri Nak Phrot is situated on Buokat Nak mountain just before Dechatiwong Bridge. It is said that the Burmese, after defeating Ayutthaya for the second time, built the wat to show that they also belived in Buddhism. Points of interest include a model footprint of the Buddha.

San Chao Por Taepharak-San Chao Mae Taptim, the most sacred pantheon, which is highly revered and the local point of Nakhon Sawan residents and their neighbors, is located at the Pak Nam Pho community on the bank of the Chao Phraya River.

Wat Kriang Krai Klang an old monastery 22 kms. from the township, on the bank of the Nan river at Tambon Kriang Krai, houses the bronze image of Buddha, the mural paintings, chapels, old pagodas and the Buddha footprint mondop. In the compound there are a lot of monkeys and also a crocodile farm in front of the wat.

Wat Woranat Banphot (Khao Khop), an old monastery in Nakhon Sawan, is situated at the foot and on the top of Khop mountain. In the compound are many attractions including model footprint of the Buddha, and the pagodas containing the relic of the Buddha, built in the Sukhothai period.

Nakhon Sawan Cultural Centre situated in Rajabhat Institue Nakhon Sawan is a 2 storey applied Thai architectural building and a historical and cultural information center of the province; there exhibitions exhibiting the development of cultural and various archeological sites

Khao Nor-Khao Kaeo These mountains are 63 kms. from Amphoe Banphotphisai situated beside Paholyothin highway (Nakhon Sawan-Khamphaengphet). Khao Nor is a limestone mountain. At the foot of the mountain there is a wat and the stairs leading to peak and there is also a big reclining Budda image at the mouth of the cave. King Rama V once stayed at this wat while on the way to the north. A lot of monkeys live at the foot of the

Mae Wong National Park there are many points of interest including Khaeng Pha Nang Khoi, a 4 stage rapids of Khlong Khlung creek; hot spring emerging from the natural underground.

Mae Leewa Waterfall is a 9 stage, 200 meters high waterfall which has water flowing through almost all year round. There is also Maesa waterfall.

Tung Hin Tern, 70 kms. from the township, located at moo 5 Tambon Pang Sawan Sub-Amphoe Mae Wong, it the meadow at the foot of the mountain where big rocks are erected in multi-tiered groups in different places and different formed, scattered along the compound in precarious balance.

Local Foods and Goods Some local specialties are Moji dessert, spotted featherback ball, stired star gooseberry with sugar, dried salted fish, perserved fruit

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Bueng Boraphet, the largest lake in Thailand, occupies an area of 140,000 rai of Amphoe Muang, Amphoe Tha Tako and Amphoe Chumsaeng. There are rare animal species, include white-eyed river martin, Siamese tiger fish and during November to March a lot of teals migrate to live here.

The Source of Maenam Chao Phraya is a junction of the Ping river and the Nan river at Tambon Pak Nam Pho. The waters of the Ping flow reddish while those of the Nan flow greenish, as visible from the high ground, panoramic view, and when met become the source of Chao Phraya flowing through various provinces in the central region.

HOTELS IN NAKHON SAWAN

1. Piman Asia Rd.
Tel. 222097, 222099, 221443 Fax 221253
121 Rooms, Room Rate : 624-2,354 Baht
2. Him Palace 55/55 Dao Dung Rd.
Tel. 222221, 221987
103 Rooms, Room Rate : 350-800 Baht
3. N.S.C.Sport Hotel Jakkawan Rd.
Tel. 228845-6 Fax 228849
41 Rooms, Room Rate : 1,648-3,200 Baht
4. A-nodart 473-479 Kosi Rd.
Tel. 221844-8
105 Rooms, Room Rate : 130-280 Baht
5. Vithithev 159/1 Sawanvithi Rd.
Tel. 222733
79 Rooms, Room Rate : 270-450 Baht
6. Pen Nung 249/7-8 Sawanvithi Rd.
Tel. 222462, 221763
50 Rooms, Room Rate : 280-380 Baht
7. Airawan 1-5 Matuli Rd.
Tel. 221889, 221070
45 Rooms, Room Rate : 120-300 Baht
8. Holiday 43 Rung Siyothai Rd.
Tel. 222062
60 Rooms, Room Rate : 200-260 Baht
9. Thai Visanu 26-28 Autthakavi Rd.
Tel. 212932, 213932
118 Rooms, Room Rate : 170-290 Baht
10. River Hotel 213-5 Kosi-Nure Rd.
Tel. 212272
30 Rooms, Room Rate : 240-300 Baht

Note : Hotel rates are subject to change without advance notice.

RESTAURANTS

1. Piman Coffeeshop Piman Hotel
Tel.222097,222099,221443
2. Rabiang Thong Pen Nung Hotel
Tel.222462,221763
3. Tiarra Cafe' Him Palace Hotel
Tel.222221,221987
4. Kangsadal Coffeeshop A-nodart Hotel
Tel. 221844-8
5. Mai Chalu Sawanvithi Rd.
Tel 226379
6. Na Pha Kosi Rd.
7. Rim Chon Kosi Tai Rd. Tel.223513
8. Ruan Phae Kosi Rd. Tel.213674,213677
9. Ja Moo Jum Phaholyothin Rd.
10. Koyee Wessuwan Rd.
12. Baan Thai 2485 Kosi Rd. Tel.212940
13. Si Khaew Utthakavi Rd.
14. Hong Faa Utthakavi Rd.
15. Leng Hong Suki Matuli Rd.

MAP OF NAKHON SAWAN

NAKHON SAWAN

For Further Information Contact:
Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT)

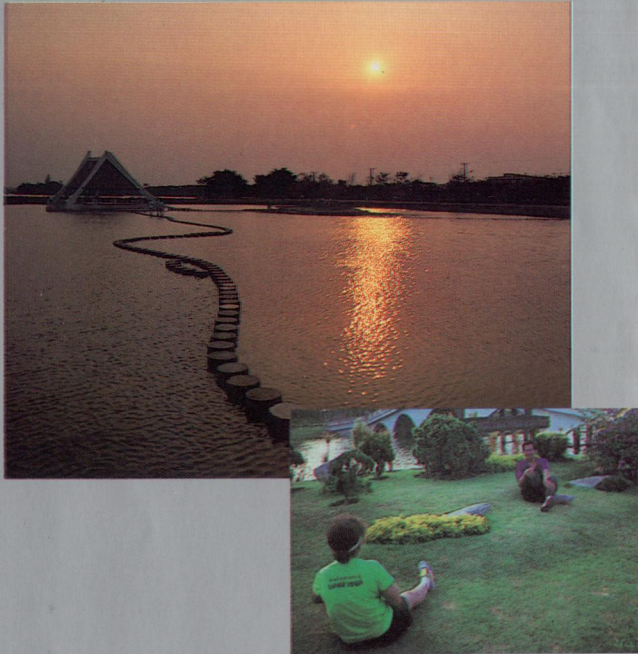

Central Region office: region 7

(Temporary Office) H.M. The Queen Celebration Building,
C/O The Lop Buri Provincial Hall, Amphoe Muang, Lop Buri 15000
Tel/ Fax (036) 422768-9

It is surmised that Nakhon Sawan was built in the Sukhothai period. According to the stone inscription "Muang Phra Bang the name of the important Buddha image was "Phra Bang" in the reign of King Rama I. This town a fortified town on the mountain facing the east was formerly located on the west side of the Chao Phraya River. It was named, according to the site, "Muang Chon Ta Wan."

Sawan Park, the big public park in the heart of Nakhon Sawan, covers an area of 314 rai. Inside is the big swamp called "Nong Somboon" It is a place for the recreation of the residents.

Wat Chom Khiri Nak Phrot is situated on Buot Nak mountain just before Dechatiwong Bridge. It is said that the Burmese, after defeating Ayutthaya for the second time, built the wat to show that they also belived in Buddhism. Points of interest include a model footprint of the Buddha.

San Chao Por Taepharak-San Chao Mae Taptim, the most sacred pantheon, which is highly revered and the local point of Nakhon Sawan residents and their neighbors, is located at the Pak Nam Pho community on the bank of the Chao Phraya River.

Wat Kriang Krai Klang an old monastery 22 kms. from the township, on the bank of the Nan river at Tambon Kriang Krai, houses the bronze image of Buddha, the mural paintings, chapels, old pagodas and the Buddha footprint mondop. In the compound there are a lot of monkeys and also a crocodile farm in front of the wat.

Wat Woranat Banphot (Khao Khop), an old monastery in Nakhon Sawan, is situated at the foot and on the top of Khop mountain. In the compound are many attractions including model footprint of the Buddha, and the pagodas containing the relic of the Buddha, built in the Sukhothai period.

Nakhon Sawan Cultural Centre situated in Rajabhat Institute Nakhon Sawan is a 2 storey applied Thai architectural building and a historical and cultural information center of the province; there exhibitions exhibiting the development of cultural and various archeological sites

Khao Nor-Khao Kaeo These mountains are 63 kms. from Amphoe Banphotphisai situated beside Paholyothin highway (Nakhon Sawan-Khamphaengphet). Khao Nor is a limestone mountain. At the foot of the mountain there is a wat and the stairs leading to peak and there is also a big reclining Buddha image at the mouth of the cave. King Rama V once stayed at this wat while on the way to the north. A lot of monkeys live at the foot of the

Mae Wong National Park there are many points of interest including Khaeng Pha Nang Khoi, a 4 stage rapids of Khlong Khlung creek; hot springs emerging from the natural underground.

Mae Leewa Waterfall is a 9 stage, 200 meters high waterfall which has water flowing through almost all year round. There is also Maesa waterfall

Tung Hin Tern, 70 kms. from the township, located at Moo 5 Tambon Pang Sawan Sub-Amphoe Mae Wong, is the meadow at the foot of the mountain where big rocks are erected in multi-tiered groups in different places and different formed, scattered along the compound in precarious balance.

Local Foods and Goods Some local specialties are Moji dessert, spotted featherback ball, stirred star gooseberry with sugar, dried salted fish, preserved fruit

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Bueng Boraphet, the largest lake in Thailand, occupies an area of 140,000 rai of Amphoe Muang, Amphoe Tha Tako and Amphoe Chumsaeng. There are rare animal species, include white-eyed river martin, Siamese tiger fish and during November to March a lot of teals migrate to live here.

The Source of Maenam Chao Phraya is a junction of the Ping river and the Nan river at Tambon Pak Nam Pho. The waters of the Ping flow reddish while those of the Nan flow greenish, as visible from the high ground, panoramic view, and when met become the source of Chao Phraya flowing through various provinces in the central region.

